

Satellite is the most refreshing thing that's happened to radio in years. Please don't nip it in the bud. No radio station in Saint Louis provides 24-hour traffic and weather. Here, only satellite radio does. The terrestrial operators have no justification to complain.